

SHRIVER

PEACEWORKER PROGRAM

...PREPARING NEW LEADERS IN THE SPIRIT OF SARGENT SHRIVER

The Shriver Peaceworker Program is a two-year Service-Learning program integrating graduate study, community service, and ethical reflection. We enable Fellows to adapt their experience as Peace Corps Volunteers to solving problems confronting urban America. Our goal is to prepare citizen leaders who can creatively respond to the economic, social, and cultural problems confronting the United States today.

53

Peace Corps countries of service are represented by 96 admitted Returned Peace Corps Volunteers

70

Service agencies and community organizations throughout the Baltimore/Washington area have partnered with the program

20

Graduate Degree Programs have been represented at 9 institutions of The Shriver Center Higher Education Consortium

90

Graduates from the program since 1994

100

Percent of program alumni are continuing in careers of service in public and private sectors

For more information contact Dr. Joby Taylor at joby.taylor@umbc.edu or 410-455-6398
* visit: <http://www.shrivercenter.org>